Lamb to the Slaughter by Roald Dahl

Elements of a short story practice.

Use examples from the text whenever possible. Example: "For her, this was always a wonderful time of the day" (Dahl 6).

Plot

Character

Setting

Atmosphere

Style

Plot Outline Practise.

Exposition (beginning)

Rising Action (the problem)

Climax (highest point)

Falling Action (outcome)

Resolution (the end)